Goldsmiths' Hall, Foster Lane, London EC2V 6BN

A stone's throw away from St Paul's Cathedral, the magnificent Goldsmiths' Hall, opened in 1835, is one of London's hidden treasures.

Events at Goldsmiths' Hall

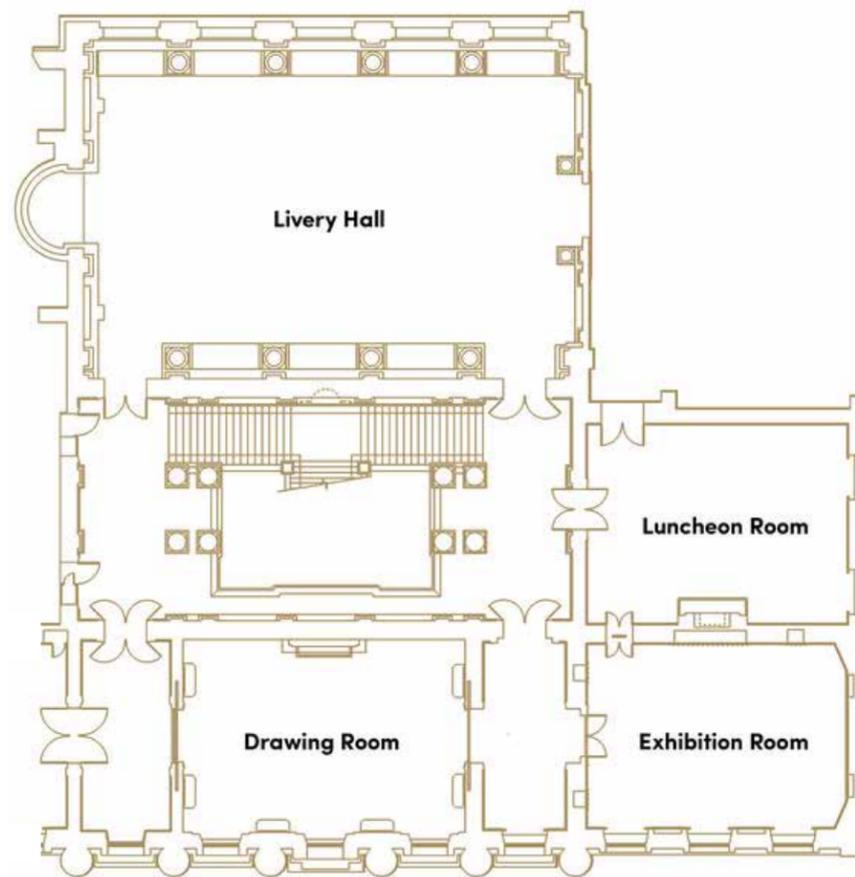

The home of The Worshipful Company of Goldsmiths, one of the Twelve Great Livery Companies of the City of London, this impressive Grade I listed building was designed by Philip Hardwick. Today Goldsmiths' Hall and its grand historic rooms make the perfect backdrop for all kinds of awe-inspiring events and occasions.

Our spaces

At the heart of the City of London, our Hall offers four events spaces suitable for every occasion, from a simple meeting for 10 to a reception for up to 500 guests. Our highly skilled team can assist you at every step to ensure your time spent with us is remarkable in every way.

The Livery Hall

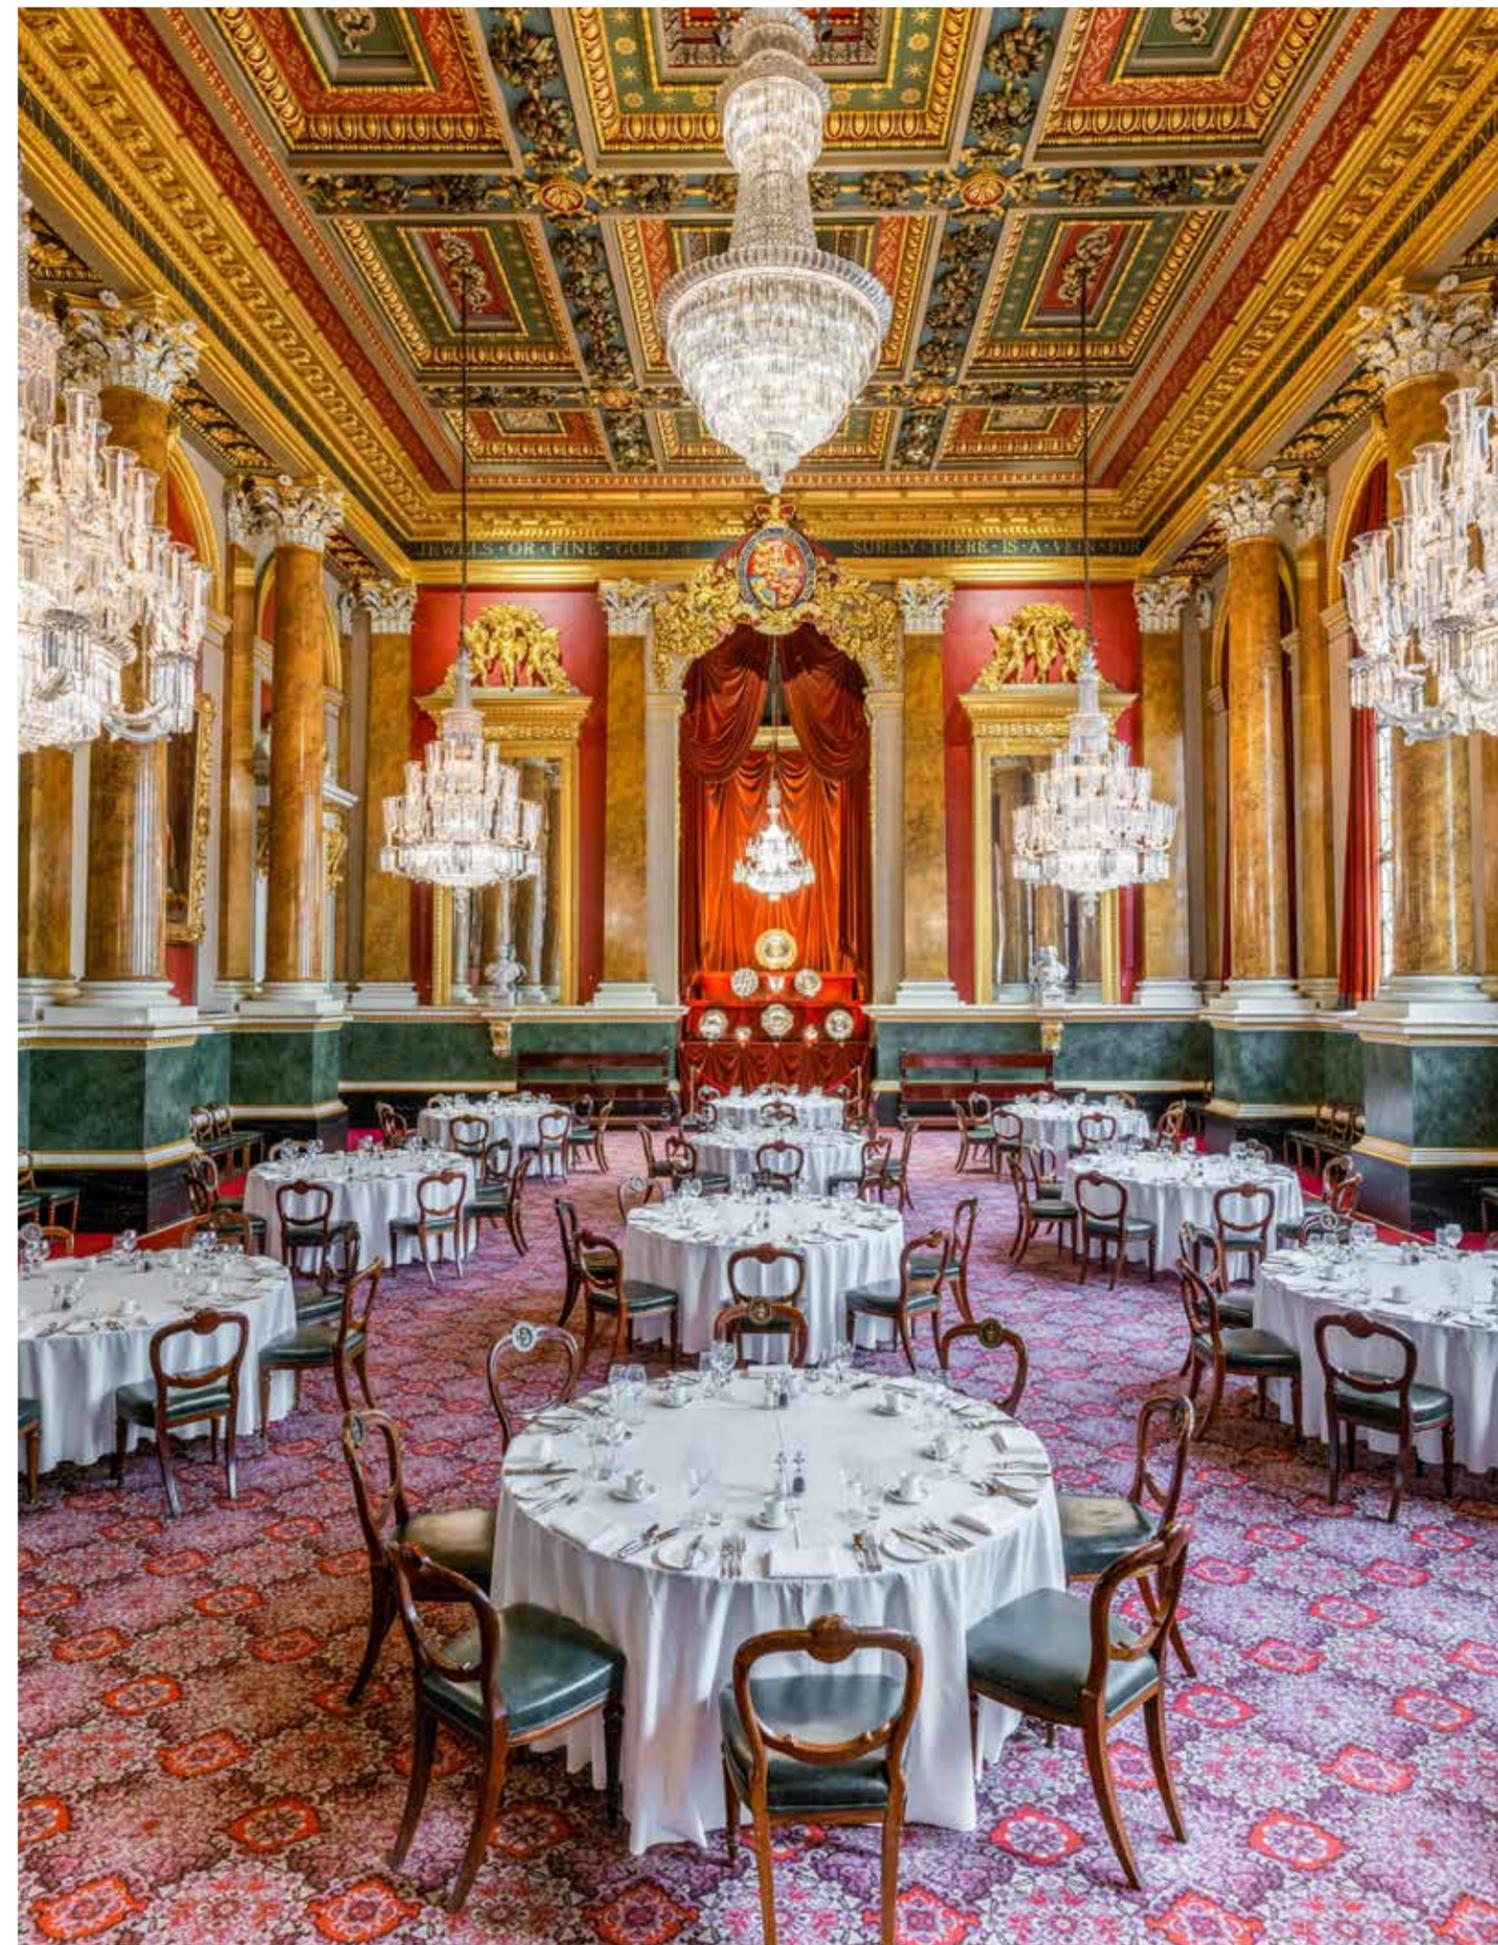

Our largest magnificently proportioned Hall with Corinthian columns has a richly decorated moulded ceiling in gold leaf. Impressive stained glass windows, four breathtaking English glass chandeliers and an abundance of grandeur makes it a perfect backdrop for an exceptional event.
